ONLINE AUCTION

One of the best parts of the Snowball is the Silent Auction. While we'll still have dozens of excellent items to bid on at the Snowball on March 2, this year we're expanding the auction with an Online Auction from Friday, February 23 to Wednesday, February 28.

This auction will feature the most popular auction items: The Humewood Teacher Experiences!! These very popular experiences have traditionally been the hit of the Snowball, but this year these sweet gigs will be available exclusively online so that the entire Humewood community can get a chance to bid for their kids.

You can find our online auction at:

HUMEWOOD TEACHER EXPERIENCES ARE BACK! (only available online)

Do your kids want a chance to be a teacher for a day?
Of course they do!

For one day, kids get the chance to rule the school as Principal or Vice-Principal, whip students into shape as Gym Teacher, conduct a chorus of classmates as Music

Teacher, or open doors to new worlds (or insist on quiet!) as Librarian.

Not only is this a great fundraising event, it's one that the students and faculty love. So don't miss your chance to give your child the power – and responsibility – of being a teacher for a day.
